PROGRAM AIM	Juvenile Diversion is an alternative to the formal court process for non-violent offenders between the ages of 11 and 18. It works within the understanding that the needs of victims, offenders, and communities cannot be effectively addressed in isolation from one another. Youth in our program meet with a panel of community members to develop an individually based accountability plan. The youth has 90 days to complete the tasks assigned by the panel. S/he checks in weekly with the program staff to monitor and support their success. Upon completion the youth meet again with their volunteer panel to assure that the contract conditions have been met. The court is then petitioned to drop the pending charges and close the file with no further judicial action.
